Basic to Advanced Levels

Thursday, September 9

6:30 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Taught by Katherine Wright

Every photographer has 10000000 + images that they have compiled over their shooting existence. This workshop is designed for participants to discover parts of themselves in their work. Each participant is to bring in 5 images (of their own work) that they are particularly drawn to. We will start asking why. Digging deep into the psychological response to work, both asking and answering questions.

Minimum of 3 participants to run the workshop

R.S.V.P. by email.

Wandering Photographer

Cultural and Landscape Outing

Saturday, September 11

10:00 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.

You requested it, and here it is...our first photographic outing.

You have seen it on museum walls, Photographs that touch impressionism. In this workshop you will see one of the masters, Degas, at THE CLARK in Williamstown featuring PICASSO LOOKS AT DEGAS. This exhibit closes Sunday, September 12.

We will start by checking out the onetime exhibit as inspiration for the shooting portion of our day. After lunch we will explore the Berkshires in afternoon light to landscape locations amenable to Impressionistic rendering. PhotoCenter Director, Katy, will encourage you to try techniques you may not realize your camera is capable of doing, and teaching technical camera settings, including zoom, sweeps, long exposure, and more!

Fee includes transportation, admission to THE CLARK and shooting instruction

Packing List: Camera, Battery, plenty of memory, tripod (recommended)

Walking shoes (optional but strongly recommended)

“The September ISSUE!”

The Fall Fashion Workshop

Intermediate to Advanced Levels

Saturday, September 18

1:00 p.m. – 6:00p.m.

Taught by Katherine Wright

The September Issue is the biggest thing in fashion every year! (Think Vogue, Harper’s Bazaar, W, etc.) With this workshop, participants will be brought into a world that replicates “behind the scenes” of a fashion shoot.

Assignments will be provided to the participants to challenge their creative styles!

Jalena from Jalena’s, a Boutique salon, will be in charge of hair and makeup. Katy will be assisting you, creating award winning clothing combinations. Participants will have the run of Katy's Studio to bring their creative vision forward!

Packing list: Camera, batteries, cards. (Additional options: strobe and meter) Bring 5 samples of an outdoor Fashion Spread for discussion and your questions.

Black and White

A Figure Study Workshop
Saturday, September 25
Noon – 6:00 p.m.

In this Figure Study Workshop we will be focusing on the form, shape, light and the absence of color. We will start by looking at examples of Master Black and White figurative photographs as inspiration for the day. Participants will have a White Seamless background and a Black Muslin background for a clean and contemporary aesthetic. Although shooting in Black and White is not a requirement, participants are encouraged to shoot black and white images so they can pay extra attention to the light and detail.

Packing list:
Questions, Notebook, Camera, batteries, cards, sunscreen, water, and your imagination

Supporting and Studio Members	$125.00
Basic Members	$145.00
Non- Members	$190.00

Minimum of 3 participants to run the workshop
Fee includes location and model fees

WORKSHOP RESERVATION POLICY

Reservations for all Photography Center Workshops are on a first come first serve basis. You may reserve your place by phone or email.

518.273.0100
info@photocentertroy.org

Payment must be made in full within 72 hours for your place to be guaranteed. The PhotoCenter accepts cash or check. Paypal payments can be made to payments@photocentertroy.org through the secure services of PayPal.

In certain circumstances the PhotoCenter will help you arrange a payment plan to make your participation possible. Please contact us for more information.

Once we have received your payment, you will be sent a confirmation email with any specifics about the workshop, including what to expect, bring and any other details.

Waiting List

Once a workshop is full we will establish a waiting list. You may request to be added to the list by calling or sending us an email. If a space becomes available the PhotoCenter will notify you.

Refunds / Cancellation

Due to our obligations to the persons involved in our workshops (which can include instructors, participants, models, make-up artists, hair stylists, location rental), the PhotoCenter has the following Refund and Cancellation Schedule.

Cancel at least 72 hours prior: 75% refund or 100% credit towards your next PhotoCenter Workshop.

Cancel at least 48 hours prior: 50% refund or 75% credit toward your next PhotoCenter Workshop.

Cancel at least 24 hours prior: 25% refund or 50% credit toward your next PhotoCenter Workshop.

Any cancellation within 24 hours of the workshop: 25% credit toward your next PhotoCenter Workshop

In the event that a shooting workshop has a low enrollment, the PhotoCenter reserves the right to reschedule the workshop for a later date. Workshop participants will be given a full credit for the future workshop or a full refund at the participant's request.

In the event that a technical workshop has low enrolment, you may still participate at the rates of our one-on-one hourly tutorial with the workshop instructor. Workshop participants will be granted credit or a refund if the tutorial is less than the original workshop price.
